- Talk on Strange Medieval Relics – Tuesday, Oct. 18 at 7:00 pm. Dr James White of the University of Alberta is an expert in what you might call "strange" relics of the middle ages. Come hear him talk about these lesser known relics - how they were venerated, how they shaped medieval religion, and the role they played in the lives of well-known saints.

- Wednesday, Oct. 19: Coffee and chat – online at 11:00 am. All are welcome.

Weekly Bible Study – We are reorganizing our weekly bible study. Please stay tuned for more info.

- Join us for the online services – Did you know that you can join us for the online services? If you would like to join us for the taping of the online services, please email me at alisonwestervelt@gmail.com and I will send the link. We begin taping at 9:15 on Sunday mornings. You can just listen to the service and observe how we create them or you can volunteer to read either the first or second lesson. If you are contemplating volunteering to participate in the in-person services, online might be a good place to start, to see how you like it.

- St. Peter's In Person Services – With St. Peter's opening on a weekly basis, we are in need of more willing bodies to help with the varied tasks needed to make the services run smoothly. Training for volunteers to help with sides person duties, prayers, readings, coffee hosts, etc. will begin in November. If you have any questions or would like to volunteer please contact Rev. Heather at stpeters.edm@gmail.com. Online services will continue as usual with Rev. Alison.

- Faithful Giving - We are blessed that God has gifted us a beautiful, caring, inclusive community here at St. Peter's. As grateful and faithful recipients of this beautiful gift of community, we also have to play our part. If you are able, please remember to donate to St. Peter's by dropping off a donation to the church or by mailing a donation. Thank you.

- A reminder that even though we are starting to loosen the bonds and restrictions of CoVid, it is still a very present reality in our province. When we are congregating, either at a service, a meeting, or at coffee, let us be aware of other's level of comfort and safety. Remember, we are still strongly recommending the use of masks. Thank you for your consideration and care for everyone.
